BRANCH MEETING

Please join us on Tuesday, April 9th, in the Whiton Room of the Hingham Public Library, 68 Leavitt St (off Rt. 128) for what promises to be a wonderful presentation on equal pay negotiation. Our speaker will be Katie Donovan. Katie is a salary negotiation teacher, coach, blogger and speaker on equal pay and women's salary negotiations. Her client successes include increases in income from $2,000 to $20,000 and even double the current income. Her first mobile application Earn More Girl for iPhone and iPads calculates women's personal pay gaps and their true target salary.

Ms. Donovan's speaking and teaching experience includes, Harvard Business School Women's Association, Mom Corps, Holy Cross Women in Business Conference, Business and Professional Women (BPW), the Boston Chapter of Women in Construction and the Cambridge Center for Adult Education. She has contributed to Forbes.com I Did Not Know to Ask for Salary Negotiation Help and HuffPost Live. She also has been quoted and covered in articles on theglasshammer.com, The New "Getting Ahead": What It Takes to Succeed in 2012, by Robin Madell, Forbes.com, American

Employers are Waiting for You to Close the Wage Gap by Victoria Pynchon, and Salary.com How to Make Sure “Binders Full of Women” Get Equal Pay by Jim Hopkinson and the Business Insider, A New Petition Would Force Employers to Disclose Salaries for All Jobs.

Katie also has 20 years experience in negotiating contracts in such diverse industries as engineering, automotive, high tech, and human resources. She has launched a petition for the Salary Inclusion to Promote Equality Act to put everyone on equal footing when negotiating.

Katie earned her MBA from McCallum School of Business, Bentley University in Waltham, MA and a BA in Economics from College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, MA. She grew up in Chelsea, MA and has stayed close to her roots, as has her extended family. She loves Boston and its two best sports, Red Sox baseball (welcome back the cry of “wait till next year”) and politics. When not working on issues about equal pay and salary negotiation, she can be found launching her product Tote-a-Tree, enjoying Boston and Cape Cod with friends and family, and trying to learn to love running!

Even though many of us are no longer in the workplace, we all know someone – daughters, granddaughters, nieces – who can benefit from Katie’s experience and insight. Bring them along to hear this important and timely presentation. Hope to see you there!

At the April meeting we'll be voting on the budget for next year. Also, we'll be presenting the slate of officers (the vote will be in May) and we will take any nominations from the floor at that time.

PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

I have been asked by Barbara Burgo to provide the details of the upcoming State Conference – see below. As in the past, we can arrange carpools for those attending as we get closer to the date of the meeting.

On Saturday, April 20th, the AAUW State Conference will be meeting at the YWCA, 140 Clarendon Street, Boston from 9:00 am to 2:30 pm. The program is entitled "At Risk: Violence Against Women in the Military" and the agenda is as follows:

9:00 - 9:45 Continental breakfast

9:45 - 10:00 Cambridge City Councilor Leland Cheung presents AAUW-MA with a certificate

10:15 - 11:00 Capt. Susan Baldwin, USAF, speaks about violence against women in the military

11:00 - 11:15 Millie Hoffler-Fouschee, AAUW National VP of Finance, gives National's position on this topic

11:30 - 12:30 Lunch (sandwiches, drinks, and dessert)

12:30 - 1:15 Millie Hoffler-Fouschee, AAUW National VP of Finance, news from National

1:30 - 2:30 Annual Meeting including election of officers

The cost is $40 or $20 for students. You can register online at Event Brite (details coming in the Baystater) or by sending a check to our Finance Officer, Robin Demott at 71 Robbins Street, Acton, MA 01720.

It is important for branch members to attend as elections will be held for state officers - your state leaders for the next two years.

Thanks so much, Pat
