

ARE YOU A LEADER ON CAMPUS?

Do you want to develop your leadership skills and meet other strong women you can relate to?

Attend the
National Conference for College Women Student Leaders
MAY 29-JUNE 1, 2019 • UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND, COLLEGE PARK

The North Shore branch of the American Association of University Women (AAUW) is offering full scholarships to the National Conference for College Women Student Leaders to two women who are currently attending north shore area colleges. The scholarship will cover your registration, transportation, room, and most meals.

Meet over 1,000 other college women from every state and around the world. Build your confidence! Learn new leadership skills! The conference features: 50 workshops that prepare students for life after college; the chance to meet inspiring female speakers and role models; and information on more than eighty employers and college/graduate school programs.

Interested? Text or call Sheri Saginor now at 978-478-8296 or email sherisaginor@gmail.com for additional information.

The application deadline is January 15, 2019.

Don't miss this opportunity!